The Fairhaven Police Department will be accepting unwanted handguns; rifles or shotguns from any Fairhaven resident who no longer wishes to own them. Any resident who may have an unwanted firearm, in their possession, is encouraged to contact Detective Pamela Bourgault at the Fairhaven Police Department to make arrangements to turn the guns in.

Detective Pamela Bourgault can be reached at the Fairhaven Police Department at 508-997-1344. Arrangements must be made prior to turning any weapons in at the police department. Remember it is not safe, nor recommended for residents to transport weapons to the police department at any time. If you have questions or concerns feel free to contact us.
